Dr. A. D. Puterbaugh, formerly of Branford, but now of Hernando, Citrus county, was a prominent business visitor in the city Monday and Tuesday.

Dr. Puterbaugh was a resident of this county for years and enjoyed a splendid practice. He is not only a good and successful physician, but a most excellent citizen, and while a resident of Suwannee county held a number of positions of honor and trust.

The Democrat is sorry the Dr. moved from our county, but we are pleased to know he is doing well at Hernando where he owns an interest in the only drug store in the town, and is also practicing his profession.

We congratulate the live and progressive town of Hernando on securing Dr. Puterbaugh as a citizen.

Wiggins-Skeen.

On Wednesday afternoon Nov. 10, 1909, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Skeen, took place a very beautiful wedding. Mr. B. F. Wiggins led to the marriage altar Miss Mamie Skeen where they plighted their faith to each other for life.

The bride is a member of the M. E. Church, South, at New Hope, and is one of our most active girls in church work.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. Richard Wiggins, a prosperous farmer of Pine Grove community, and is a model young man.

May your joys be many and your sorrows few, as you sail over the sea of life, is the wish of your pastor, FRANK P. JERNIGAN.

Beachville Briefs.

We have been having some cool weather for the past week.

The people have begun to grind cane, and the young folks have some fine times. Most everybody will make plenty of syrup and some to spare.

The young folks have reorganized the debating society and will meet every Saturday night except before the first and third Sunday, and then it will be on Friday night. Everybody remember the dates and come. The next subject will be, Resolved: "That Paper is More Benefit to Man Than Gunpowder." Come out and hear them. Ladies especially invited.

Miss Clara O'Hara visited her parents at Falmouth Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Ella Beach spent several days in Live Oak this week the guest of her brother, P. M. Odom, and family.

Wonder if a certain young man has got his potatoes dug yet?

Mrs. G. B. Cason and daughter spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Arra Beach.

School is progressing fine and everybody is delighted with the teacher.

Miss Irvie Sweat spent Saturday with her parents. She was accompanied by her friend, Miss Nona Philips.

Most everybody around here have gone into the picture business. There will soon be more photographs than anything else.

Don't forget the debate. Come and learn something. Come one, come all.

Well, Xmas will soon be here, and we will all have to hurry around to be ready for Santa Claus.

"CRY BABY."

Complete line of bed-room slippers for men, ladies and children, in all colors in felt, will make a suitable Xmas present at S. J. White's.
